

Irene Kai's

JUNE 8 - 30

WHAT DO YOU SEE?

About Irene Kai

Irene Kai is an award winning artist, author, publisher, teacher and activist. Born in Hong Kong, she graduated from the School of Visual Arts in New York City and received her Master of Design degree from the Royal College of Art, London. She taught Graphic Design at Penn State University and has traveled extensively throughout the world. She is the author of The Golden Mountain, and the literal inspiration for George Segal's Hand on Chest which hangs today in the San Diego Museum of Art. Her work has been shown in London, New York, and up and down the West Coast. Kai is the winner of the National Freedom Fighter Award.

Education:

School of Visual Arts, NYC - 1972

Royal College of Art, London - 1975

Instructor of Graphic Design at Penn State University - 1976

The Work

These are the same images Princess Margaret wasn't allowed to see in 1976 – now for the first time in Los Angeles. All works are originals by Irene Kai. The prints come in signed and unsigned, numbered editions. Low number editions are framed and signed by the artist. Work may be released after full payment and after the exhibition ends [June 30]. All work is sold 'as is' and prices below do not include sales tax.

- 1. Signed, Framed, Low Number Prints (on display) [$2800 each]
- 2. Unframed Prints [$1200 each]
- 3. Original 8 x 10 Color Prints by the artist (1976) [$6000 each]
(not on public display – please ask if you would like to view)
- 4. What Do You See? Art Book (48 pages, hardcover) [$15 each]

FOUND. GALLERY

www.foundla.com | 1903 Hyperion Ave, Los Angeles, CA 90027 | Ph: 323.669.1247