

FOUND GALLERY ANNOUNCES ONE-OF-A-KIND
ONLINE ART STORE

In an effort to expand its reach while continuing to provide a unique and satisfying art buying experience, Found Gallery in Silverlake has officially launched its online art store. The website, www.foundla.com/buy, features artwork currently and previously featured in the gallery, as well as exclusive, never before seen work. Now, customers from across the U.S. and around the world can shop for and purchase art featured in our L.A.-based gallery.

Among the artists currently featured in the store are: Wolfgang Bauer, Jonny Coleman, Ryan Piers Williams, internationally acclaimed guerilla photographer JR, DJ Grossi, Madla Hruza, Kim Bagwill, Airom Bleicher, Sarah Dougherty, Joan Cox, and many more.

Artwork sold in the store ranges from the very affordable ($300) to the slightly more exclusive ($20,000). Found curator Jonny Coleman hopes the broad range of work will attract everyone from the novice art collector to the avid art aficionado.

To aid in the art-buying process, the site features a first-in-the-industry Art Concierge service that assists clients in every step of the art selection and acquisition process. The store will also feature limited edition prints of collaborative pieces from shows such as the critically acclaimed Joint Custody Project and the upcoming The Other Cheek. Found Gallery will ship anywhere in the United States, and payments are accepted online via credit card and check/money orders.

MORE: About FOUND GALLERY: The brain-child of local Eastside painter Jonny Coleman and Westside film producer/investor John Schwartz, Found Gallery opened its doors in mid-August 2006 (under the name The Orphanage Gallery). The gallery serves as a dynamic venue for emerging artists to showcase their works to up-and-coming collectors.

FOUND GALLERY art shows attract a diverse, high-end crowd of art-lovers and buyers.
